HAMILTON, Bermuda, June 24, 2016 – The Commission of Inquiry today reminded the public and members of the media that their first series of Public Hearings will begin on Monday, June 27, 2016.

The hearings, which will be held in St. Theresa’s Church Hall, Laffan Street, Hamilton, will begin at 10:00am.

The Commission, which is chaired by international jurist and former Bermuda Court of Appeal judge Sir Anthony Evans, has been charged with investigating the findings of the Auditor General’s report on the Consolidated Fund for the 2010, 2011, and 2012 Financial Years. Its members are lawyer and former MP the Honourable John Barritt, businesswoman Fiona Luck and businessman Kumi Bradshaw.
